Programme structure - programme rules and modules

Programme rules

This award, Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector, consists of one level 1 module as seen below, and is designed as the 'Threshold to Teach' within the Lifelong Learning Sector (as specified by LLUK/DfES).

Following successful completion of this award, and dependent on teaching role can progress onto the Certificate in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector, if in associate role. Subject to the student obtaining a full teaching role (as defined by LLUK/DfES) students can progress onto the Diploma in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector. Upon successful completion of this Diploma, the progression route for undergraduate students is the Foundation Degree in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector. Further progression upon a successful completion, will be onto the BA Hons in Education Studies (already validated in 2006). For those students who are already graduates, progression will be onto the Post Graduate Diploma in Teaching in the Lifelong Sector, and then further onto the MA in Education.

Information about assessment regulations

All programmes leading to LJMU awards operate within the University's Academic Framework.
<https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/about-us/public-information/academic-quality-and-regulations/academic-framework>

Opportunities for work-related learning (location and nature of activities)

As this is a professional practice programme for teachers both intending and already working within the Lifelong Learning sector, there is a substantial element of work related learning integral to the module.

Criteria for admission

A/AS Level

Candidates must be able to satisfy the LJMU and Centre admissions requirements in one of the following ways:

All students must be qualified to a minimum of a National Qualifications Framework level 3 (HE 0) or equivalent within their own subject area. In addition, it is strongly recommended that, for entrance onto any of the programmes within the suite described above, candidates also possess a G.C.S.E. grade C (or equivalent) qualification in Maths and English, or Key Skill/Basic Skill level 2/3 in Communication and Application of Number, and ICT. All students will complete an Initial Diagnostic Assessment at the college where they will be studying. This assessment will check levels of literacy, numeracy and ICT. All students must pass this assessment at a minimum of level 2 before being allowed to commence the initial threshold module - PTLLS. For those students who do not achieve a satisfactory result, support and guidance will be offered to enable each individual to develop the necessary skills for them to be able to re-sit the initial assessment again. Additionally, all students must ensure that a subject specialist mentor is identified prior to commencing the programme.

External Quality Benchmarks

All programmes leading to LJMU awards have been designed and approved in accordance with the UK Quality Code for Higher Education, including the Framework for Higher Education Qualifications in the UK (FHEQ) and subject benchmark statements where applicable.

The University is subject to periodic review of its quality and standards by the Quality Assurance Agency (QAA). Published review reports are available on the QAA website at www.qaa.ac.uk

Programmes which are professionally accredited are reviewed by professional, statutory and regulatory bodies (PSRBs) and such programmes must meet the competencies/standards of those PSRBs.

Support for students and their learning

The University aims to provide students with access to appropriate and timely information, support and guidance to ensure that they are able to benefit fully from their time at LJMU. All students are assigned a Personal Tutor to provide academic support and when necessary signpost students to the appropriate University support services.

Students are able to access a range of professional services including:

- Advice on practical aspects of study and how to use these opportunities to support and enhance their personal and academic development. This includes support for placements and careers guidance.
- Student Advice and Wellbeing Services provide students with advice, support and information, particularly in the areas of: student funding and financial matters, disability, advice and support to international students, study support, accommodation, health, wellbeing and counselling.
- Students studying for an LJMU award at a partner organisation will have access to local support services

Methods for evaluating and improving the quality and standards of teaching and learning

Student Feedback and Evaluation

The University uses the results of student feedback from internal and external student surveys (such as module evaluations, the NSS and PTES), module evaluation questionnaires and meetings with student representatives to improve the quality of programmes.

Staff development

The quality of teaching is assured through staff review and staff development in learning, teaching and assessment.

Internal Review

All programmes are reviewed annually and periodically, informed by a range of data and feedback, to ensure quality and standards of programmes and to make improvements to programmes.

External Examining

External examiners are appointed to programmes to assess whether:

- the University is maintaining the threshold academic standards set for awards in accordance with the FHEQ and applicable subject benchmark statements
- the assessment process measures student achievement rigorously and fairly against the intended outcomes of the programme(s) and is conducted in line with University policies and regulations
- the academic standards are comparable with those in other UK higher education institutions of which external examiners have experience

- the achievement of students are comparable with those in other UK higher education institutions of which the external examiners have experience and to provide informative comment and recommendations on:

- good practice and innovation relating to learning, teaching and assessment observed by external examiners
- opportunities to enhance the quality of the learning opportunities provided to students

Please note:

This specification provides a concise summary of the main features of the programme and the learning outcomes that a typical student might reasonably be expected to achieve and demonstrate if he/she takes full advantage of the learning opportunities that are provided. More detailed information on the learning outcomes, content, teaching, learning and assessment methods of each module can be found in module and programme guides.
